

Evidence

Ana demonstrated impressive creativity while designing and creating a character out of a pumpkin. She carefully planned her ideas, choosing features and decorations that matched the character's style and personality. Throughout the process, she used language thoughtfully to describe her design choices and explain her imaginative storyline. Her artistic decisions showed a strong sense of creativity, from selecting colours and materials to shaping the pumpkin in unique ways. By experimenting with different techniques and expressing her ideas confidently, she was able to develop her creative abilities and produce a charming, original character.

