

Giorgia used ICT tools effectively while working with her group to create a poster. She shared ideas through digital platforms, contributed to a shared document, and communicated clearly with her teammates. By using her laptop responsibly and helping others access information, she supported smooth collaboration. Her thoughtful use of technology helped the group organise their ideas and produce a well-designed, informative poster.

