Painting the Mural

One day, all the teachers gave the children a paint brush, to draw on the mural. ^{Everyone} ~~evryone~~, in turns, started to ~~dra~~ paint the wall. Half way done, it looked like nothing special but, at the end, when the painting was all finished, it looked like a ^{beautiful} butiful garden. ~~It~~ ^{with} ~~was evry one's~~ ^{It was everyone's} bit of work ^{that} made it into ^a memory of the School. ~~Till~~ Till now the painting is still on that wall.
